My name is Gerald and I'm an addict.
Here is something I hope someone can identify with.
My journey of recovery is and was a bumpy yet worthwhile road to travel. And on this journey, I've had some ups and downs, tears and lots of growing pains. Only in Narcotics Anonymous, was I able to come to get honest to myself about myself. And in this process of discovering myself through meetings, service, fellowship and the 12 steps did I actually learn who I truly was, and who I want to be. If you're a newcomer or coming back I strongly urge you not to leave before the miracle happens and keep coming back.
Thank you for allowing me to be of service.
